

Enrolment and Course Changes

A. Enrolment and Academic Year

Academic Year

The academic year is defined as the period of time which begins on the eighth Monday of any year and ends at the end of the following February, however, individual courses may begin and end at any time during the year.

Note: In 2007 the academic year begins on the ninth Monday of the year.

Enrolment

- All students are required to enrol by completing the prescribed forms and paying the prescribed fees prior to attending classes.
- The following categories of students are required to make prior application for admission to classes (apply to enrol), on their addresses on the University website.

- read information on their UC Student email/web portal at least once per week.

1 Dates for Enrolment, Discontinuation of Enrolment and Course Changes (adding and discontinuing courses)

- Except as shown in (b) below, the following are the final dates for enrolment, discontinuation and course changes:
 - Final date for enrolment:
 - Courses of study of one semester duration or longer (excluding summer courses): the second Friday following the course start date;
 - a non-refundable late enrolment application fee of $100 per course (maximum $200 per semester) and approval of the Head of Department/School concerned.

- Final date for addition of courses:
 - First semester courses: Second Friday of the first semester;
 - Whole year courses: Second Friday of the first semester;
 - Second semester courses: Second Friday of the second semester.

Addition of courses after this date will be subject to the approval of the relevant Head of Department/School.

- For final dates for discontinuation of enrolment and courses, with deletion of courses from record, refer to the table on page 56.
